Timur was born in Transoxiana near the city of Kesh (modern Shahrisabz, Uzbekistan) some 80 kilometres (50 mi) south of Samarkand, part of what was then the Chagatai Khanate. His father, Taraghai, was a minor noble of the Barlas, a Mongolian tribe that had been turkified in many aspects. Historian Beatrice Forbes Manz believes that Timur may have later understated the social position of his ...

Even a short section of consecutive text pages from the Hamzanama shows little unity in persons and places. The longest, readily available sequence of Hamzanama text pages is pages 20-27 in volume 11. [76] Table 1 shows for each of these pages the number of places where an action occurs, and the number of distinctively named characters who are the subjects of action.

This is an incomplete listing of some very bad things that happened before the 20th Century. I've scoured the history books and collected most of the major atrocities that anyone has bothered to enumerate. However, just because an event is missing from these pages doesn't mean that it wasn't very bloody.
